

Emily Hilbig

1B Electrical Engineering | University of Waterloo

Cell: 905 606 0360

Email: eshilbig@uwaterloo.ca

SKILLS AND HIGHLIGHTS

- Software development with analytical skills
- Proficient in Java, C#, SQL, VB.NET, Python, HTML
- Experience with Eclipse, Visual Studio, PyDev
- Hardworking and self-motivated
- Excellent problem solver, quick learner

JOB OBJECTIVE

To be challenged in my field while learning as much as possible.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Database Analyst - Independent Electricity System Operator of Ontario (IESO)

Oakville (Jan '14 – May '14)

- Provided data base administration for the Market Registration team
- Used Object Oriented Programming principles to design, develop, and maintain tools used on a daily basis by the team
- Prepared concise documentation for users and future developers

Field Marketing Representative - Kognitive Marketing

Toronto (Jul '13 – Aug '13)

- Exceeded expected revenue goals selling credit cards
- Gained interpersonal communication skills, worked with sales team to promote products
- Developed sales strategies individually resulting in consistent sales
- Documented sales and created report for head office

Gym Supervisor - Curves Meadowvale

Mississauga (Mar '13 – June '13)

- Trained gym members following the Curves Complete Fitness Program, assessed their progress reported results to members
- Compiled gym activities daily to update other coaches of the gyms status
- Represented the company by providing it with new clients

Sales Representative - Global Marketing

Mississauga (June '12 – Sept '12)

- Canvassed subscriptions to the Toronto Star on a commission basis
- Consistently top seller for the team, often hit incentive levels

EDUCATION

University of Waterloo

(Sept '13 – present)

Candidate for a Bachelor of Applied Science in Electrical Engineering

- Relevant courses: Engineering Design with Embedded Systems (Android programming), Fundamentals of Programming, Digital Circuits and Systems, Discrete Mathematics

ACTIVITIES AND INTERESTS

Volleyball • Basketball • Football • Snowboarding • Making Games • Running • LOTR Marathons